

Econ 172A, F2007: Midterm Information

Results. There were 135 points possible. Range 66-131, median: 102. I promised that I would not assign letter grades prior to the final, but would give guidelines based on past grades. According to past grade distributions, my cutoff for an A would be between 113 and 115, for a B would be between 102 and 105, and for a C would be between 84 and 88. This is only a rough guide. In the end, I will add up your points (appropriately weighted) and come up with a final grade. Scores of 112 and 116 on the midterm were virtually identical and I do not want to be forced to distinguish between them at this time.

Regrading Instructions. If you have questions about your exam, I encourage you to speak with me. If you wish to have portions of your exam regraded, you must follow the rules below.

1. Please read the posted answers to the exam carefully.
2. You have until November 27, 2007 to request a regrade of Midterm. After this date, do not bother.
3. If you have questions about how your exam was graded and you think that your score should be adjusted, then submit your question to me in writing. Do not write more on your exam paper if you request a regrade.
4. Return your exam to me, with your written explanation attached.
5. I will give the exam back to the grader, who will respond to your comment. Then I will read the grader's comment and, if appropriate, adjust your grade.
6. If you have questions about our response to your regrade request, then you are welcome to talk to me.
7. Warning: I have made xerox copies of some of the examinations. If you submit a request for a regrade that does not coincide with the copy, there will be serious consequences.
